Windsor— October 27, 2022 — Heritage Talent is proud to announce a unique industry and faith partnership with Pray the Path and PDF Ministries, Inc., as together, we launch the First Annual Pecan Pickling Short Film Festival September 8-10, 2023, in Bertie County, NC. The festival will host some of the most creative films by some of the most promising local, state and national filmmakers. The three-day event will showcase films of all lengths and genres from both established and emerging artist from rural and urban centers as well.

A film festival is a series of screenings that take place over the course of a few days. The films screened at these festivals include projects that are rich in storytelling. Heritage Talent Pecan Pickling Short Film Festival will offer established and burgeoning filmmakers a platform to introduce their work and pursue projects that explore a range of categories: short feature films, action, adventure, animation, documentary and musicals, to include the addition of a Hybrid and Project Innovation category. The Hybrid features projects created by youth filmmakers who have teamed up with adult filmmakers to showcase projects. The Project Innovation category uses hope and faith as essential to telling great stories. It is storytelling that explores relevant faith content in a changing world.

About us: As NEW KIDS on the creative arts promotion block, Heritage Talent is proud to celebrate the creative arts and showcase local talent, especially from rural and urban centers. Heritage Pecan Pickling Short Film Festival was founded to showcase filmmaking from nontraditional places, and address and emphasize the role of prayer and hope as essential tools in overcoming obstacles.

The Heritage Pecan Pickling Short Film Festival creates an environment that is welcoming for new emerging film makers and creatives to produce compelling short films (5 minutes under 45 minutes) to include documentaries, animation and hybrids, that explore the role of prayer in untold stories.
